Cross Words: Week 1
March 8, 2020

{Luke 23:32-38}

Jesus spoke _____ statements while hanging on the cross.

“Father, forgive them...”

* Forgiveness is a _____, not an occasional _____.

Forgiveness:

1. It's not only for the one who owes something, but also for the one who has been _____.
2. Holding on to the pain does far more _____.
3. To forgive is to _____ a _____.
4. _____ may still surface, but the resentment and anger can go away with time.
5. Because of the _____, we have made forgiveness part of who we are.

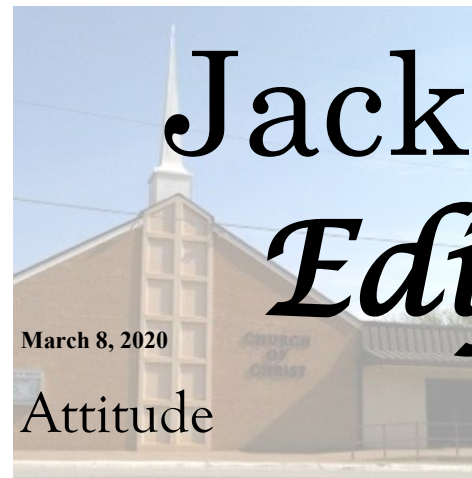

Eph 4:31,32....vs. 26,27

Matt 6:14,15

Jesus practiced what He preached, all the way to the very end.

If Jesus can forgive in this moment, then we can forgive others.

_____ is possible in this world, and it needs to start with us.

Vol. 3, No.10

“We have all heard about the optimistic approach which states, “when life hands you lemons, make lemonade.” Think for a moment about your attitude. For the most part, attitude is a habit. It’s something that we slowly develop over time. It’s also accurate to say that your attitude has a lot to do with the way you view things in life. Did you hear about the optimist that fell from the top floor of a 12-story building? Someone yelled out the 7th floor window as the man passed by and asked, “How is it going?” The man yelled back, “So far so good!”

Our attitude can make a difference. The optimist sees the glass half-full and the pessimist sees the glass half-empty. You can go through the Bible and find bad attitudes of selfishness and fear, and you can look around in life and find people who reflect this way of thinking. On the other hand, you can also find good attitudes in both the Bible and in life. Even today, we can still find attitudes in people of faith that say, like David, “God and I can conquer this giant.” I think we can all agree that our attitude, our outlook on life, is important. So the question is, are you letting the attitude of Jesus be seen in you?
