Welcome Back

Vol. 3, No.21

We're glad you're here this morning! To those of you visiting this morning, welcome! To our members, welcome back! It has been a long road to get here, but I'm glad that we are finally able to meet together again. To refresh your memory, we haven't met together at the building since Sunday, March 15. That was ten weeks ago! Little did we know that when we left the building that day, that we would not be able to return until today.

Acts 2:42 says, "They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer." Fellowship was extremely important for the first century church and I hope you realize its importance for us today. I hope we never again take for granted the opportunity to meet together as a church family.

We've all had to adjust to changes since we last met. In-person worship services changed to online lessons, Wednesday classes changed to Zoom meetings, and even communion has changed! As we gather together in a world filled with changes, let us rejoice and unite in the things that we know never will: God, the gospel, and our mission. Enjoy the fellowship this morning as we praise God together, and welcome back!

Aaron
