The Bond of Peace

It was so great to be together last week, and I enjoyed seeing all of you again! These past several weeks have been challenging for many of us, and no matter what your reaction has been to the events surrounding COVID-19, we all have been changed in one way or another. It's important for us to realize that we are not all on the same page in regard to how we are dealing with these events. For some of you, your lives have changed very little. For others, your life has been directly impacted in a very negative way. For everyone else, you are somewhere in between those two extremes.

The apostle Paul says in Ephesians 4:1-6, "Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love, being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." I've been extremely proud of this congregation and how you have respected and honored each other during this time of varying emotions and opinions. We will not always agree on every little thing, but I'm thankful that we do agree on the things that truly matter.

Aaron
