Inescapable Love

The moment your children come into the world; you love them. They have done nothing to earn your love, but you love them anyway because they are yours. You continue to love them, no matter what. This is unconditional love and parents certainly have it. This is the best human example of God's love for us. It is not based on performance or merit. It is based on the fact that we are His.

Our heavenly Father expressed His love to us again and again (1 John 4:19). What excites the emotional energy of God? What stirs His heart? What makes Him sad? To know the answers to these questions is to have a better understanding of how much God loves you (Romans 5:8). Answers to these questions give us insight into the depth of God's love. Throughout scripture God affirms His love for us. God's inescapable love is a love that hurts with us, a love that dreams great dreams for us, a love that cares enough to discipline us so that we might return to Him (Hebrews 12:10). God tells us He loves us, and then He shows it. His ultimate act of love was sending His Son Jesus Christ into the world to die for our sins. This week reflect on the great love that God has for you.
