Represent Christ

Think of your last five conversations with others (or your last five comments on Facebook) and then answer these questions:

What kingdom am I building with my comments? An earthly kingdom, or Christ's kingdom?

Were my comments an attack on others made in the image of God, for whom Christ died?

Since I am an ambassador of Christ, do people see His likeness in the way I talk to, or about others?

"With [the tongue] we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God; from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way." (James 3:9,10)

"For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it will be measured to you." (Matthew 7:1,2)

"We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us;" (II Cor 5:20)

"As I have loved you, you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:34,35)

You either represent Christ, or the world, in your actions. All the time. In every interaction you have. May we all represent our Savior well this week.
