People of Hope

“...sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence.” (1 Peter 3:14,15)

Hope is what the world should see in us regardless of our circumstances. The world is full of despair, it is riddled with worry and anxiety. The world lacks hope. Outsiders should be amazed at Christians who, despite potential sufferings or lack of worldly pleasures, are full of hope.

What does this look like?

When we are visiting with our neighbors, they should encounter hope in what we say.

When people log on to social media, they should see a clear distinction between Christians and non-Christians. We do not participate in the despair found online. We are a people of hope.

When we talk about the future, we are hopeful. We may not know what will happen tomorrow, but we know God is in control.

In the small conversations we have at the grocery store, gas pumps, restaurants, etc. people should be able to catch a glimmer of hope in the words we choose.

If our hope is in Jesus, and not things of this world, then we cannot help but be hopeful. We have a living hope that cannot be taken from us. Live like a person of hope this week.
