Our Vote

While many are fixated on election day this Tuesday, the most important vote is one we make every day. Our allegiances are revealed in the way we choose to live our lives. We vote with our words, our actions, and our thoughts. We don't have to place a sign in our front yard or wear a hat for everyone to view because people can see who it is we are choosing to follow.

We vote by how we treat others.

We vote by how we spend our time. We vote by the way we speak of others. We vote by the language we choose to use. We vote by practicing acts of kindness. We vote by giving others the benefit of the doubt. We vote by refusing to participate in lies. We vote by showing others grace. We vote by forgiving those who have wronged us. We vote by taking time to pray. We vote by how we choose to see others. We vote by being present whenever the church gathers. We vote by helping people in need. We vote by loving our neighbors. We vote by spending time in God's word. We vote by giving to the poor. We vote by being peacemakers. We vote by caring for orphans and widows.

Every day we choose who to follow. Who do you choose? How do you cast your vote?
