Seek First

“Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness...” (Matt 6:33)
 We know this verse well. It’s meaning is clear. We are to prioritize God and His kingdom above all else. We sing these words in worship, but do we mean them? Is it our desire to seek first the kingdom of God and do our best to live this every day? What does it look like to seek first the kingdom of God?

- It means prioritizing the kingdom of God over our wants and desires.
- It means the kingdom of God comes before sport and recreational activities.
- It means our first concern is what is best for the kingdom of God.
- It means our loyalty towards God and his kingdom is greater than any political allegiance we might have.
- It means the most important thing we can do for our families is seek first the kingdom of God.
- It means prioritizing the kingdom of God in our relationships with people online and offline.
- It means God is never secondary.
- It means when the people of the kingdom meet to worship or serve God, we are going to be present.
- It means always considering the kingdom of God when making decisions regarding time, money, and resources.
- It means people will know by what we do and say that God is first in our lives.
- It means our greatest desire is God and His kingdom. He has captured our hearts. Nothing is more important.
