Good News

“Do you want the good news first or the bad news?” We have all heard this question at some point. As we look at the minor prophets we see how over and over the prophets spoke both good and bad news. The prophets would call God’s people to repentance as they slowly became like the nations around them. God’s people became distracted, gave their hearts over to other gods, and lost their focus. There is a “yo-yo” of activity throughout the book of Micah as he calls down words of warning and judgment, as well as words of comfort and hope on Judah.

Micah ends the book with good news: “Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity and passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in unchanging love. He will again have compassion on us; He will tread our iniquities under foot. Yes, You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.” (Micah 7:18, 19). Isn’t it good news that we serve a God who pardons sin and forgives transgression? Isn’t it good news that we serve a God who shows mercy and compassion, who will hurl our iniquities into the bottom of the sea? Let this good news propel us to love our God with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength this week.
