Love Unites

“For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’”(Galatians 5:14)

We live in a polarized world. People have opinions about everything. We judge people on where they get their news, which athletes they cheer for, and which products they buy.

In a divided world, the focus of our conversations can easily become about winning. We demonize the other side. We think the worst of others. We set out to prove people wrong and ourselves right. We see this behavior every day on social media, the news, and in our interactions with others. It is not righteous or good. We are not treating others as we would like to be treated.

The goal of Christian conversations should always be to love our neighbors. This is our first priority. We are not to look down upon others or treat them disrespectfully. We are to listen and understand. We are to exhibit the fruit of the Spirit. We are to encourage and uplift and seek peace wherever we can. Winning an argument is not a victory; loving our neighbor is a victory.

We have different backgrounds, beliefs, and opinions. We look different and we were raised differently. However, we unite around Christ. He is greater than anything that might divide us. He is greater than any differences we have. In a divided world, it is important that we keep our eyes on Christ.
