Like Children

"At that time the disciples came to Jesus and said, 'Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?' And He called a child to Himself and set him before them, and said, 'Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever then humbles himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.'" (Matt 18:1-4)

"Then some children were brought to Him so that He might lay His hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, 'Let the children alone, and do not hinder them from coming to Me; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.'" (Matt 19:13-14)

It always amazes me how Jesus tells His followers to be more like children. Children are innocent. Children trust without question. Children have a faith in God that sometimes makes our faith look weak by comparison.

As adults, our lives get messy. We may get frustrated or get our feelings hurt. We might become preoccupied with other things. If only we would be like little children. If only we would recognize the joy of every opportunity we get to worship God. If only we would be fully present to those around us and treasure our blessings. If only we would trust in God the way a child does. This week, seek to have a child-like faith.
