Finding Jesus

"Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you— unless indeed you fail the test?" (II Cor 13:5)

At the end of II Corinthians, Paul challenges the church to examine themselves. He wants them to reflect on their own lives. They are to be looking for one thing, Jesus. Can they find Jesus in their lives? Can they find Jesus in their homes? Can they find Jesus in the church? If so, they are "in the faith." If not, they have failed the test.

What about us? We are to examine ourselves regularly. We are to be self-aware. We need to know whether we are following Jesus or not. We can give ourselves the same test Paul gave the Corinthians. Look for Jesus and take note of where He is and isn't.

Can Jesus be found in my home? Is He present when the family gathers for a meal? Are my children growing up to be like Christ? Can He be seen in my interactions with coworkers? Do my posts and comments point people to Christ? Do people know me as a Jesus follower? Can Jesus be found among my church family?

Hopefully, Jesus is with us wherever we go, but if He is not, we should do what we can to correct this. We should seek His presence and follow in His footsteps.
