Change

You may have noticed a change in your friends or family recently. The truth is people change. The experiences of life alter us in unexpected ways. We have seen a lot of this over the last year and a half. We have endured these moments, and we are not the same. We are different people because of these experiences.

You may not like that your neighbor, family member, coworker, friend, or fellow Christian has changed. You might even wish for them to be the person they once were. The truth is they are not the only ones who have changed. You have too. We all change. This is life.

If all of us are changing, it is important to reflect on how we have changed. Not all change is bad after all. It all depends on who we are becoming and what changes are taking place. We need to have enough self-awareness to realize the changes in our lives.

Change is a part of being a Christian. The goal of each Christian is to be transformed into the image of Jesus, to draw nearer to Him (Rom 12:2). The change we are to desire is less of self and more of Christ (Jn 3:30). We will experience all kinds of events in our life that will cause us to pause and reflect. How we respond and who we become is up to us. Jesus never changes, but we should.
